

SICK AND HOUSEBOUND:

Because of the recently introduced Data Protection legislation, it is no longer permissible to print the names of our sick and housebound parishioners – unless and until I have, as Parish Priest, the written permission from each person to do this.

This means it is very important that those who visit the sick and housebound ensure that, if those they visit are agreeable, they fill in the GDPR form that has been available over the past couple of weeks.

For the time being, therefore, please keep the sick and housebound in your prayers – simply with a general intention for them.

Dear Parishioners,

PARISH '100 CLUB': The Draw for June was held after the 11am Mass last Sunday.

Winners: 1st Prize: Michael Westlake (No 78); 2nd Prize: Mary Mustoe-Arthur (No 70); 3rd Prize: Peter Godfrey (no 91).

DATA PROTECTION:

Parish Priests in the Diocese have been advised to include in our weekly News-sheets this notice: 'If you are aware that the Parish holds information about you that you wish to have deleted, please inform the Parish Priest and this request will be immediately carried out'.

Many thanks to all of you who have completed and returned the Form that has been distributed over the past few weeks. I would remind you that every family member needs to complete one of these forms. There is a further supply of these forms in each church.

It is not only for Diocesan purposes that we need you to fill in and sign this form. It is also necessary for various different purposes in the Parish.

If you were not at Mass in the Parish last weekend, you will find these forms at the back of both churches. Please take as many as you need and bring them back, completed, next weekend. Would Lay Ministers of Holy Communion provide those they visit with one of these forms and ask that it be filled in – and then bring it back to church.

Also, his thanks for the cards, greetings and gifts sent to him.
