Dear Parishioners,

On this my last weekend in the Parish, I would like to express my great gratitude to everyone who has supported me so generously in my ministry here over the past eleven years: to Fr Tim and Deacon Andrew, of course, but also to those, who, over the time I have been here, have worked with me in a whole range of different areas of parish life. The well-being of a Parish always depends so much on the shared prayer and work of clergy and laity. We have been most fortunate in having had so many parishioners willing to devote their time and various different skills to building up the life of the Parish. And time and again parishioners have been remarkable for the support you have given one another, with great sensitivity, through illness, bereavement and other troubles.

This weekend I will be celebrating and preaching at all three weekend Masses. After the 11am Sunday Mass there will be a Farewell Party in the Hall and in the garden, weather permitting! NB. There will be no Extraordinary Form Mass this Sunday (25th August). The monthly celebration of this Mass will resume on Sunday, 29th September at 6pm.

This Saturday we welcome once again the members of the Lochhead Family at the Saturday 6pm Mass at Cromer. As in past years, members of the family will do the Readings and Bidding Prayers.

CLERGY AWAY: Fr Tim Bugby will be away from 22nd until 27th August. Deacon Andrew Neate will be away (on the Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes) from 23rd – 30th August.
