Dear Parishioners,
The spread of the new variant is giving cause for concern in some quarters so we must be vigilant and continue the regime which as served us well so far – using hand-gel, wearing masks and socially distancing. If you intend visiting over the holiday period then please book a place using the details below this notice or from the website.

The Synodal Pathway
David Burns writes,
We now have a 10 people group to develop and coordinate the feedback for the parish. If you still want to give input but not attend the meetings, then please feed your thoughts into Dave Burns at davidburns@dbaconsulting.co.uk or call him on 07831 394346 as soon as possible. We will bring all feedback together and input to the diocese as requested in the recent Bishop's letter.

The "Task and Finish" group have been meeting and are looking at how we need to adapt so that the essential tasks which need to be done are attended to. I am very grateful to all the members of the group for their help and advice and expertise as our buildings are beginning to show their age. We have had the Quinquennial inspection at OLR and the report has now come in. The Historic Churches have taken that task over for S. Joseph's and we are waiting for them to come and do the same here.
