Dear Parishioners,

World Day of Prayer

this year is at Cromer Parish Church next Friday, the 4th of March 2pm. The service for 2022 has been prepared by the Christian Women of England, Wales an Northern Ireland with the theme of hope. Also, I would like to urge as many of you as possible to join in the service. Although this is a service prepared by women throughout the world it is very much an inclusive service and I would also like to urge the men of the parish to take part. Thank you in advance, Breeda Godfrey.

Barbara Shannon's Requiem will be at S. Joseph's at 12 noon on Tuesday 8th March followed by Cremation at 1pm.

NEWSPAPERS

With so much of the newspapers reporting bad news I'm happy to tell you that the March copy of the Diocesan Newspaper is available, please collect your copy after Mass this weekend. In addition, a very few copies of new newspaper called 'The Catholic Post' is also in circulation and is free. If you are interested then please help yourself .

The Finance Committee, at its recent meeting, asked that we circulate a letter to all parishioners to try to give everyone an accurate and up-to-date picture of the financial state of the parish after what has been a very difficult eighteen months for us because of the effect of the pandemic. I ask everyone to read it carefully. If you have any questions then please feel free to speak to a member of the Committee whose names are at the foot of the letter and who will be able to help you.

Parish Pastoral Council will be meeting on Thursday, 17th March in the hall at S. Joseph's at 7pm. It is an open meeting and all are welcome to attend.

Tea & coffee at OLR today. Please join us after Sunday Mass.

Yours, in Christ,

Fr James.
