Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

I am very glad to announce that we are hosting an ecumenical evening prayer at 3pm next Sunday for the various Christian congregations in Sheringham, followed by a more social time in the hall, generously catered for by our Social Committee. I am also grateful for the parish choir's attendance who will lead us in our praise. It would be good to see as many of our community there as possible for this rare occasion when we can welcome Christians of other denominations to our parish.

Please do also consider taking part in prayers with our fellow Christians in the area during this week, as advertised by the many Churches around us. Those who attend the Thursday Mass in Holt have been invited in a special way to morning prayer at St Andrew's at 9am before our Mass.

Rite of Acceptance

The 11am Mass today begins with a short rite to accept Keir as a catechumen, someone receiving instruction to become a Catholic. He has been preparing to be received into the Church this Easter for some time, so it is a joyful opportunity to recognise that more formally, and to pray in a particular way as a parish that the Holy Spirit continues to nourish his heart and mind in the love of Christ and His Church. Do keep him in your prayers.

Spare Crockery

There are some plates and other such things which do not clearly belong to the church hall in Sheringham. If these are yours, or you could put them to good use, please do cause them to disappear.

Second Collection for Bishop Alan's Parting Gift

In addition to attendance at a thanksgiving Mass at 11:30 at the Cathedral (24th of Jan), there is now another way to express your gratitude for Bishop Alan's service to the diocese through today's second collection. We join parishes around the diocese in taking a collection to offer Bishop Alan a gift from parishioners.

If you would like anything included in the parish newsletter, please send Fr Peter an email by Wednesday evening.
