Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

We are hosting ecumenical evening prayer at 3pm today (22nd) for the Christian congregations in Sheringham, followed by a more social time in the hall, generously catered for by our Social Committee. I am also grateful for the parish choir's attendance who are leading us in our praise. It would be good to see as many of our community there as possible for this rare occasion when we can welcome Christians of other denominations to our parish.

Security Matters

To keep in line with latest guidance, the locks to the presbytery in Sheringham, and the codes for access around both churches will be changed so that the parish has a definite list of who has access. If you make use of a key to the presbytery, or a code to enter a safe or door, please let Fr Peter know, including when and why you tend to do so, that lists might be put together.

Calling all Eucharistic Ministers

Fr Peter is keen to revitalise eucharistic ministry in the parish so there will be a session of input and refreshing of practicalities for those who take communion to the sick and housebound at 3pm at St Joseph's on the 12th of Feb.

Fr Peter is also keen to continue a second minister distributing communion under one kind at the 11am Mass, once seminarian Anthony has left, so could eucharistic ministers who attend that service and are willing to help in this way please let him know so that a simple rota can be prepared.

100 Club

The first 100 club draw will take place at the end of January 2023. If you wish to be included in the draw please ensure you have sent in your renewal form or if you are not a member and wish to join please contact Peter Godfrey on 01263833665 or via e-mail at pagoraam@gmail.com.

If you would like anything included in the parish newsletter, please send Fr Peter an email by Wednesday evening.
