Note of thanks to Anthony

With full confidence that Anthony, the seminarian who has been with us these past weeks, will be reading this newsletter online after his departure, it is well worth expressing that the parish owes him a great debt of gratitude for all the work he has done, much unseen, to help over what has been a particularly busy time. We wish him the very best and keep him in our prayers as he continues his training and discernment. He too has asked that his thanks for the welcome and kindness he received be passed on.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

The ecumenical evening prayer we hosted last Sunday was a great success, thanks to the hard work of all those involved in its preparation; especially the choir who sang beautifully, and the social committee who showed great hospitality to our guests. We have received numerous messages of thanks and appreciation from those who attended.

Calling all Eucharistic Ministers

There will be a session of input and refreshing of practicalities for those who take communion to the sick and housebound at 3pm at St Joseph's on the 12th of Feb.

Fr Peter is also keen to continue a second minister distributing communion under one kind at the 11am Mass so could eucharistic ministers who attend that service and are willing to help in this way please let him know so that a simple rota can be prepared. Many thanks to those who have already replied.

Security Matters

To keep in line with latest guidance, the locks to the presbytery in Sheringham, and the codes for access around both churches will be changed so that the parish has a definite list of who has access. If you make use of a key to the presbytery, or a code to enter a safe or door, please let Fr Peter know, including when and why you tend to do so, that lists might be put together.

If you would like anything included in the parish newsletter, please send Fr Peter an email by Wednesday evening.
