From Fr Peter

The warmest wishes of Easter joy to you as we celebrate this season of our Lord's resurrection. I owe a great debt of gratitude to all who have worked so hard to prepare our liturgies, and our churches, without whom our worship together would not be possible. A word of welcome too to any visitors who have joined us for Mass. You are most welcome amongst us, and we pray that your time here is restful and spiritually fruitful.

On a practical note, there will be no Mass this Monday as that allows me to catch my breath after the Triduum, and next weekend I shall be away to deliver a lecture, but Fr Denys will be here to celebrate the Sunday Masses. He passes on his Easter greetings, as does Fr James who sends loving prayers and thanks to the parish for all the support he has been given. Bishop Peter too has sent a message to us all, which I echo here; As I rejoice in offering you my Easter greetings, I further rejoice in thanking you for your faithful allegiance to the risen Lord, for your generosity in proclaiming the Gospel through the witness of your words and through the service of your actions. Let us rejoice to say together: the Lord is risen, alleluia, alleluia.
