From Fr Peter

I once again thank everybody for their kind words at the news of my move to Norwich in September to begin work as Bishop's Secretary and Chaplain to UEA. I spent much of Thursday with the Bishop being briefed on the tasks ahead, so I all the more ask your prayers as I take these new challenges on. No news yet on my successor but we pray for him too.

I ask your prayers also for James, William, Martin, Joseph and David, dear friends from seminary whose ordination to the diaconate I will be attending in Rome this week. We are most grateful for Fr Tim Bugby whose support has allowed Masses to continue uninterrupted while I show my support to these five new servants of God's Church.
