From Fr Peter

Thank you indeed for your recent prayers as I am very grateful to have benefited from two fruitful conferences, and even some days of rest and retreat in between. It has been a grace-filled but relentless summer for me, and the time of transition ahead will bring its own demands, so I am all the more thankful for that time to recharge, at least partially!

Once again, I thank those who have 'held the fort' in my absence and this coming week I will be hard at work to finalise preparations for Fr Trindade's arrival. We keep him very much in prayers and we thank God both for his 'yes' to his priestly vocation, and his appointment to our parish. The Father always works great things when his children entrust themselves to His blessings.

Fr Peter's Farewell

Please come and say goodbye to Father Peter as he leaves our Parish to start his new adventures! There will be refreshments and an opportunity to say goodbye to Father after the 11 o'clock Mass at St. Joseph's on Sunday 17th September 2023. All Welcome.
