From Fr Trindade

Dear Parishioners,

I was delighted and happy to meet many of you after mass and for teas and coffee in the hall on the last weekend in Sheringham and Cromer. Thanks once again for being so cordial and welcoming. We will surely have many such opportunities to meet and know one another.

There is one such occasion coming up in our parish and that is the social committee Meet. This happens to be a great chance for us to Meet, Greet, Know and Make friends with our parishioners in Cromer and Sheringham. This will take place at St. Joseph's hall at 2:30 pm on 5th Oct, Thursday, 2023. Let's come along. You all will be most welcome.

At every aspect of our life we need protection and guidance. The church this week on 2nd Oct, Monday, reminds us that God has assigned us Holy Guardian angels and put us under their care to enlighten, protect and guide each one of us.

Let us be open to the voice of our guardian angel that helps us to look at Jesus and the glories of heaven.

God Bless us all.
