Temporary Emergency Accommodation (TEA) Project

As you will know the Temporary Emergency Accommodation (TEA) Project is provided by our, the North Norfolk SVP Conference and principally run by Michael McMahon and Steve James.

Joey Garande manages the Project, which is about people who become in need of emergency accommodation, from ill health, redundancy, moving on from prison and many other heart-breaking reasons.

SVP owns three houses, in Sheringham and Cromer, for families in need of emergency accommodation. Working closely with the Local Authority the SVP have been able to set up and manage the houses and the safeguarding standards needed.

If you would like to become involved with the good works of SVP please do contact your local Conference
