Diocesan Vacancy – Secretary to the Historic Churches Committee.

The Secretary is at the forefront of ensuring that the Historic Churches Committee processes its business in a professional and timely manner, and ensures the preservation of our historic churches for present and future generations.

The role is a voluntary one, and involves a commitment of approximately 20 days a year – Further information on Diocesan Website – link here: https://www.rcdea.org.uk/opportunity-to-play-key-historic-churches-role/

Temporary Emergency Accommodation (TEA) Project

As you will know the Temporary Emergency Accommodation (TEA) Project is provided by our, the North Norfolk SVP Conference and principally run by Michael McMahon and Steve James.

Joey Garande manages the Project, which is about people who become in need of emergency accommodation, from ill health, redundancy, moving on from prison and many other heart-breaking reasons.

SVP owns three houses, in Sheringham and Cromer, for families in need of emergency accommodation. Working closely with the Local Authority the SVP have been able to set up and manage the houses and the safeguarding standards needed.

If you would like to become involved with the good works of SVP please do contact your local Conference
