Christ is Risen! Happy Easter!

FROM THE PARISH PRIEST

Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining. Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning!

I wish all of you and your families a very happy and blessed Easter. This season is longer than Lent, because we were made for rejoicing. May we all be icons of both joy and hope this season and always.

Thank you to everybody who helped in every way with the beautiful liturgical celebrations of the Paschal Triduum, both liturgical ministers and all those who helped in other supportive and preparatory roles.

The collection on Easter day is (like Christmas day) customarily a gift to the parish priest. These two collections are a major portion of the priest's annual income, so I thank you very much for your gift!

It is also customary that parish priests have a 5-day break after Easter, so I will be away on the weekdays of this week. I am grateful to Fr Andrew for offering to celebrate Mass during the Octave. However, there will be no Mass on Friday this week.

Since it is now Easter, all Masses in St Joseph's will be celebrated at the high altar in the church itself.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Winifred Potter will be buried at St Andrew's Church (graveyard service) in Holt on Monday 28 April at 10am, the Funeral Mass having already taken place in London. Canon Stoker has graciously granted permission for a Catholic burial to take place in his churchyard; all are welcome. Please pray for Winifred, and for those who mourn her.

Next Sunday, we will have a second collection (cash or card) for CAFOD's special appeal for the relief of earthquake victims in Burma.

There will be some small but regular weekday liturgy schedule changes from now on:

- Wednesday – Saturday weekday Masses will all be at 9.30am.
- Mass on Wednesdays (Our Lady of Refuge) will be followed by adoration and benediction, but not after Mass on Fridays.
- There will be more regular confession times (in addition to Tuesday evening) on Saturday mornings at St Joseph, and Saturday evening at Our Lady of Refuge.
