FROM THE PARISH PRIEST

Praying for the dead is an important spiritual work of mercy that we do as Catholics. In November, it forms a special part of a popular piety. I will visit all the cemeteries in our parish over November, and I will be blessing specific graves that you can mark with a little yellow/white flag available in the porch. I will visit the following cemeteries this week at these times for grave blessings:

Holt Cemetery (Cley Road): Tuesday 4 November 1pm
Sheringham Cemetery (Weybourne Road): Tuesday 4 November 2.30pm
Cromer Cemetery (Holt Road): Saturday 8 November 1.30pm
Overstrand Cemetery (Cromer Road): Saturday 8 November 4pm

If you are putting a flag in these cemeteries, do so close to those dates/times. You are welcome to join me at any of these cemeteries on the days/times listed above. If you forget your flag, just drag me to the right grave in person! Also, please add on the poster in the church porch any other cemeteries in the parish you would like me to visit specifically to bless a grave which you can mark with a flag for me.

Please add names of loved one to the parish Book of the Dead in the sanctuary of the church for their names to be read on those specific days during November. You can also make a donation for Mass intentions for the Holy Souls, using the envelopes available in the porch or beside the Book of the Dead.

Next weekend is Remembrance Sunday. The 9am and 11am Masses will be offered for the War Dead. This year, we will also have formal representation at each of the civic services in our three towns on Remembrance Sunday. I will attend the civic service in Cromer, Fr Andrew will attend the civic service in Sheringham, and another parishioner will attend the civic service in Holt on behalf of the parish.
