Today, there will be a second collection for Trainee Priests

East Anglia has 2 priestly ordinations this year, and only one other seminarian in the seminary (we had 14 a decade ago!) • This annual diocesan collection raises enough to pay for the annual training of one seminarian

FROM THE PARISH PRIEST

Sometimes, I can be too subtle! Today, I shall be plain: specific help is needed for the liturgy. Training is given; roles gradually introduced; experience not required. Nothing is the guarded territory of another person; there are no toes to step on! I am a shy introvert, too; please don't let reserve hamper gift.

At St Joseph specifically:

- At least one sacristan/sacristy assistant – help set up/clear up for Mass/keep sacristy tidy
- At least one more adult altar server – & with a view to succession planning; DBS required
- Someone able to take control of the live-stream broadcast laptop – all easier than they sound

At both churches:

- Altar servers (DBS req.) / people to set up & clear for both/either Sunday Masses generally
- Welcomers, tea & coffee volunteers, & singers
