FROM THE PARISH PRIEST

This weekend, our metropolitan, Archbishop Richard, will receive the pallium from Pope Leo in Rome. Please pray for him, and for our province of Westminster of which East Anglia is a part. The pallium, ←shown here, is an ancient papal vestment worn around the shoulders of the Pope and of metropolitan archbishops at his gift. It is made of wool, symbolising us – the lambs – carried on the Pope's shoulders. It is marked with 5 crosses, symbolising Christ's five wounds, and it is worn with 3 "nails" stuck into it, symbolising the nails of the Cross. We don't see pallia very often around these parts, but when we see Pope Leo celebrating Mass wearing it, we can remind ourselves that his ministry – and that of all bishops – is to carry us, personally. Please pray for them daily.

PARISH ANNOUNCEMENTS

Please pray for Adrian Rudman who has died suddenly, and all who mourn him. Adrian was an SVP member who, while a North Walsham parishioner, did much good work in our parish.

On Tuesday this week, St Augustine Primary School Choir will be coming to Sheringham for a day out, and would like to sing at Mass. To welcome them, the parish Mass will be at 10am on Tuesday. There will be about 50 children. If you can, please do come, too, so that we may welcome them as a parish family. There will be no evening Mass on Tuesday, therefore, but there will still be Holy Hour and confessions available.

The sacristy at Our Lady of Refuge is getting a new lock on it. This will enable the church to be open during the day eventually. If you feel you need access to the sacristy, please speak to Fr Simon.

The lock on the accessible toilet in St Joseph Hall has now been repaired.

On Saturday this week, Anthony Reilly, who did a placement in our parish during his time in seminary, will be ordained priest alongside Peter Ho in our Cathedral. Anthony has written to us to ask for our prayers, and to let us know it is happening. Because, for our priests, attendance at diocesan ordinations is mandatory, Fr Simon will be going, and this means the Saturday morning parish Mass will be at 8.30am.

If you would like to come to the ordination, you are welcome to come in Fr Simon's or Dave Burns's car.

If you would like to come to the ordination, please __tell Fr Simon immediately__ so he can make sure you can get a lift if you cannot get there yourself. If you would like to come to the ordination and would like to drive yourself and offer a lift, please also tell Fr Simon immediately.

Please pray for Anthony and Peter this week. Their ordination is likely to be the last big one for a while!
